- Artwork delivered to Kingshill House on or before Friday, 17th January 2020
- Artwork retrieved from Kingshill House by Friday, 21st February 2020

Please include all of the following information with the Artists Application by the deadline date stated above:

1. Artist's Application containing the following information.
  - Full name
  - Email address
  - Phone number
  - Website/Facebook page – if applicable
2. Numbered image list including: Title, Medium, Dimensions, Price (if for sale)
3. Artwork images
  - One to three clear digital images of your artwork. These images can be: embedded in your Application Document (MSWord or PDF preferred), or uploaded separately (jpeg, pdf, tiff). Label each image file with your last name and a number corresponding to the order of the images on your image list.
4. Details of any work to be sold; cards, prints etc. We require a detailed inventory of what stock is being brought to Kingshill House.
5. Short Biography
6. Signed copy returned of the Artists Agreement – Terms and Conditions

Notes

- All documentation listed above must be received by the deadline date. The office does not have sufficient resources to chase up Artists for missing documentation and therefore if information is missing we may not be able to use your Artwork in the Exhibition.
- Submissions will be subject to a selection process before being accepted for entry.

- If accepted, there is no fee charged for entry.
- A maximum of 6 artworks can be submitted per entry, although we reserve the right to limit the number displayed if supply exceeds space available in the exhibition.
- If selected for the exhibition the artwork must be ready to hang/install. For example, works on stretched canvas and framed works will include picture wire or other suitable and sturdy mounting hardware.
- 3D pieces are welcome, but space is limited so we cannot guarantee all pieces will be displayed.
- If your Artwork is available for sale, please provide a sale price. Commission will be payable at 25% to Kingshill House Limited.
